

HeinOnline Libraries

HeinOnline content is organized in a set of Libraries, and each library may include several different types of individual documents, such as journal, magazine and newsletter articles, session laws, U.S. Code volumes, court reporters and slip opinions, and individual treatises. Some content may exist in more than one library.

Currently, the New York Law Institute subscribes to the following Libraries:

- Law Journal Library (U.S. and foreign law reviews, magazines, and peer-reviewed legal journals)
- American Association of Law Libraries
- Association of American Law Schools
- Code of Federal Regulations (all editions, 1938 to the present)
- English Reports, Full Reprint (1220-1867)
- European Center for Minority Issues
- Federal Register Library (all daily issues)
- Legal Classics
- Manual of Patent Examining Procedure
- Pentagon Papers
- Session Laws Library (All state and territorial session laws)
- Treaties and Agreements Library
- Trends in Law Library Management and Technology
- United States Code (all bound volumes and cumulative supplements)
- U.S. Attorney General Opinions
- U.S. Federal Legislative History Library

Direct access to HeinOnline is available for New York Law Institute member firms with 50 or fewer attorneys resident in the New York office, government agencies, and non-profit organizations. Other members can place a document delivery request for HeinOnline. The New York Law Institute reference and research librarians are also able to access all of the subscribed libraries to conduct custom, on-demand research.
